

The 3rd Database Quality Improvement Conference

Date: September 13, 2009 - Sunday

Venue: Room A, Yayoi Memorial Auditorium, Tokyo Women's Medical University, Tokyo

11:00-12:50 Part I Database management and analysis

11:00-11:05 Opening remarks

11:05-11:30 Five year trends of Japanese database

Satoshi Kusuda, MD

Tokyo Women's Medical University, Japan

11:30-12:30 Management of the Australian and New Zealand Neonatal Network

Brian Darlow, MD FRCP FRCPCH FRACP

Christchurch School of Medicine, New Zealand

12:30-13:10 Lunch

Part II Analysis of Japanese network database

13:10-13:40 New birth weight standards for Japanese

Kazuo Itabashi, MD

Showa University

13:40-14:10 Consulting business for the improvement of NICU management

Rintaro Mori, MD

Osaka Maternal and Medical Center

14:10-14:40 Anticipation of histologic CAM with clinical CAM

Hiroaki Tokumasu, MD

Kyoto University

14:40-15:10 Collaboration between NICU at Level III perinatal center and community hospitals

Hiroyuki Hiroma, MD

Nagano Children's Hospital

- 15:10-15:25 Comparison between maternal and neonatal transport
Hiroshi Wada, MD
Yodogawa Christian Hospital
- 15:25-15:40 New strategies for the development of perinatal medical system
Masanori Tamura, MD
Saitama Medical Center University
- 15:40-15:50 Break
- 15:50-16:05 Late onset circulatory collapse in preterm infants
Atsushi Uchiyama, MD
Tokyo Women's Medical University
- 16:05-16:20 Risk factors for developing CLD
Satsuki Totsu, MD
Tokyo Women's Medical University
- 16:20-16:50 Singleton versus multiple birth
Naohiro Yonemoto, MD
Osaka Maternal and Medical Center
- 16:50 Closing remarks
- 17:00-20:00 Provision for the establishment of new perinatal system in 2010
Only for applicants