

Russian-Japanese International Medical Seminar (Online)

Date: November 26, 2020

Russian-Japanese International Medical Seminar was held by Marubeni Corporation, Kameda General Hospital, Russian Railway Clinical Hospitals and Kyushu University Hospital in cooperation with Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare of Japan for “Cooperation in the field of health promotion and preventive medicine.” This seminar was for general public of Khabarovsk, corporate employees and medical practitioners, and it consisted of 2 sections: “preventive medicine and check-ups” and “treatments for Covid-19.”

From Kyushu University Hospital, Dr. Moriyama (Endoscopist), Dr. Kubo (Breast surgeon) and Dr. Shimono (Infectious disease specialist) presented.

Over 1,400 people participated in this seminar and showed high interests toward preventive medicine.

【Seminar website】

【Dr. Moriyama's presentation】

【Dr. Kubo's presentation】

【Dr. Shimono Q&A session】