

March 2015

JOURNAL OF SOCIAL WORK IN HEALTH

Vol. 22/Vol. 23

Keynote Speech

Comparison in Mourning Work between Modern Society and traditional Society

—Examining Religious Contribution to medical Services Satoshi Kato

The supported decision making and an advocacy world Syoichi Sato

Symposium

Multiple levels of self-determination and its support

—Focusing the concept, target, and methodology — Tokiko Ishikawa

Social worker's role in helping client to decision making Maki Yoshida

Range of the social work in the decision making

—From practice in the palliative medicine Satoko Tamura

Articles

Significance of medical social work services by telephone

—Possibilities and Limitations— Keiko Torisu

Effects of participating in a support group for bereaved by suicide

—Based on narratives of participants— Yuki Ikawa

Issues concerning support for “selecting living placements” under the community-based integrated care policy in Japan

—How can medical social workers contribute to patients and their families' decisions on “selecting living placements”—

..... Kinuko Hibino

Published by

JAPAN SOCIETY OF SOCIAL WORK IN HEALTH (JSSWH)