

【Consent to Copyright and Viewing Terms】

The copyrights and other intellectual property rights related to the presentations and lectures distributed at this conference (including slides, videos, audio, images, and documents) shall, in principle, belong to the presenters or the conference organizers.

By registering for participation, attendees are deemed to have agreed in advance to the following:

- Not to record, duplicate, take screenshots of, or redistribute any distributed video or materials
- Not to share URLs or login credentials with third parties
- Not to use any content without permission for purposes other than academic use

In cases where unauthorized viewing or misuse is detected, the organizer reserves the right to suspend the participant's account or restrict future participation.

Any actions that violate these terms may be subject to legal action by the organizer.

If you have any inquiries about Consent to Copyright and Viewing Terms, please contact AsiaCORD office.
